

Hayin Kim

Research Assistant
Community Leadership

Hayin Kim is a fourth year doctoral student in the Education Administration and Policy Analysis program at Stanford. She previously worked at The Children's Aid Society in New York City as Special Projects Coordinator for community schools and as a Program Assistant at the national Coalition for Community Schools. Currently, Hayin's dissertation research focuses on how concepts of race, equity and community affect policymaking processes and outcomes.